

IN THE CIRCUIT COURT OF THE SIXTH JUDICIAL CIRCUIT
IN AND FOR PINELLAS COUNTY, FLORIDA
CIVIL DIVISION

SEAMARK, INC., a Florida not for profit corporation, PROTECT ST. PETE BEACH ADVOCACY GROUP, a Florida not for profit corporation, and KEN BARNES, individually,

Petitioners,

Case No.: 24-000008-AP

v.

CITY OF ST. PETE BEACH, FLORIDA, a Political Subdivision of the State of Florida, CP ST. PETE, LLC, a Foreign limited liability company, Respondents.

_____ /

ORDER TO SHOW CAUSE

THIS CAUSE comes before the Court on Petitioner’s “Petition for Writ of Certiorari” filed April 3, 2024, pursuant to Florida Rules of Appellate Procedure 9.100. Having reviewed the petition and finding it to be timely, pursuant to Florida Rules of Appellate Procedure 9.100(h), it is hereby,

ORDERED AND ADJUDGED that Respondents shall file a response showing cause as to why the requested relief should not be granted on or before May 20, 2024. The responses may include an appendix and shall include appropriate citations of authority in support of any argument and shall include references to the appropriate pages of the appendices. The Petitioners shall have thirty (30) days after the responses are filed within which to file a reply and supplemental appendix.

No hearing shall be scheduled or held unless by order of the Court.

DONE AND ORDERED this _____ day of April, 2024, in chambers in St. Petersburg, Pinellas County, Florida

24-000008-AP 4/16/2024 8:48:42 AM
Circuit Judge Thomas Ramsberger
24-000008-AP 4/16/2024 8:48:42 AM

Thomas Ramsberger
Circuit Court Judge

Copies Furnished:

Richard J. Dewitt, III, Esq.
200 S. Andrews Ave., Ste. 601
Ft. Lauderdale, Florida 33301
rdewitt@govlawgroup.com
pleadings@govlawgroup.com
Counsel for Petitioners Seamark, Inc. and Ken Barnes

